

« You're thinking about your child's development. We've been thinking about it since 1992. »
Together, we are building the next generation

Nothing fosters as much self-confidence as participation in the "Programme Karaté Sportif". In fact, this is what parents of our students say they appreciate the most. After all, who wouldn't like to know that their child could cope with almost any situation? This is not all. Our students and their parents also tell us that self-confidence makes a huge difference in their relationships with others as well as at school and at home. In addition, they feel in great shape.

Martial arts are well suited to develop the character of your children, motivating them to excel and to make an effort. In addition, the courses allow children to develop the leadership skills that they need to deal with negative peer pressure and to succeed in today's world. So, if your child doesn't finish what he starts, can't concentrate for any length of time, angers quickly, lacks confidence, needs role models, trust us. Our instructors are experts when it comes to helping children realize their full potential.

Improved self-confidence and fitness ... that's a perfect combination! With Programme Karaté Sportif you have the better of two worlds. Thanks to our courses, your children will feel more secure, but our goal is much more than self-defense. We teach anger control and peaceful conflict resolution. We develop vital concentration techniques and we instill confidence and self-esteem through our comprehensive individual self-development program.
